

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN Medical Laboratory Science

Boost your earning potential and achieve upward mobility in the healthcare field. Medical laboratory scientists play a critical role in providing the data needed for accurate diagnosis, effective treatment, and proactive disease prevention. Learn the advanced skills that will enhance your expertise and position you for leadership opportunities within the lab environment.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Program is fully accredited by the National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Sciences
- Formal clinical rotations are not required for certified lab technicians
- Our graduates have a high pass rate for the certification exam through the American Society for Clinical Pathology
- Flexible courses and testing options to accommodate working professionals
- Military experience may count toward credits

REQUIREMENTS

- MLT certification through ASCP
- Graduate of an accredited MLT or military program or at least two years of full-time clinical experience in an accredited laboratory
- Admission to ODU
- Program application and letters of reference

Why ODUGlobal?

Affordable, Competitive Tuition

ODU is one of the most affordable public universities, with competitive tuition rates for online learners.

Coaching and Support

Our staff partner with students from the first time they contact us all the way through graduation, offering resources and support at every step. More than 20,000 students have completed their education through ODUGlobal.

Nationally Recognized Faculty

Award-winning faculty guide students toward successfully earning their degree online at an R1 elite research university.

Pioneering Leader

ODU has advanced distance learning for nearly 40 years. Our culture of innovation continues as we embrace new technologies and lead the way in establishing best practices.

LET'S GO

healthsciencesonline@odu.edu