

Accelerated Online Training Specialist Degree Program

Gain the skills to propose training solutions that result in talent development and organizational performance improvement. You will partner with experts to build training programs for any work setting. Join a $350 billion global industry, with employment opportunities in business, health care, government, military, higher education and more.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Projected US job growth exceeds national average
- Careers include training and development managers, recruiters and specialists, instructional designers, chief learning officers, and human resources specialists

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Accelerated program allows you to fast-track your degree through full-time and part-time enrollment options
- Transfer credits accepted from community colleges, and we evaluate military and work experience for credit
- Coursework draws from the latest research conducted by the Association for Talent Development, SHRM, and the Association of Human Resources Development
- Curriculum flexibility with over 21 elective credits in your chosen area of interest
- Internship opportunity with flexibility for working adults
- Built-in OSHA certification opportunity can enhance your credentials and readiness for the workforce in your field

Why ODUGlobal?

Affordable, Competitive Tuition

ODU is an affordable public university offering competitive tuition rates and scholarships for online learners.

Coaching and Support

Our staff partner with students from the first time they contact us all the way through graduation, offering resources and support at every step. More than 20,000 students have completed their education through ODUGlobal.

Nationally Recognized Faculty

Award-winning faculty guide students toward successfully earning their degree online at an R1 elite research university.

Pioneering Leader

ODU has advanced distance learning for nearly 40 years. Our culture of innovation continues as we embrace new technologies and lead the way in establishing best practices.

LET'S GO

educationonline@odu.edu