

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

Interdisciplinary Studies

Major in Leadership

The Leadership major is a flexible academic degree that focuses on characteristics and skills necessary to lead in organizational and social contexts. The program emphasizes ethical leadership, legal issues and written and oral communication skills. Students will enhance their ability to create, access and utilize online platforms for resources, commerce and collaboration in an executive setting. Graduates are prepared for organizational leadership and management in a wide variety of business and industry.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Flexible online interdisciplinary degree designed to accelerate degree completion for adult learners and military-affiliated students
- Includes courses from philosophy, computer science, engineering, information technology and criminal justice
- Credits may be granted for military training and experience
- Accelerated online degree option available
- Scholarships available

MAJOR RELATED SKILLS

- Critical Thinking
- Judgement & Decision-Making
- Complex Problem Solving
- Persuasion
- Negotiation
- Management of Resources

Why ODUGlobal?

Affordable, Competitive Tuition

ODU is an affordable public university offering competitive tuition rates and scholarships for online learners.

Coaching and Support

Our staff partner with students from the first time they contact us all the way through graduation, offering resources and support at every step. More than 20,000 students have completed their education through ODUGlobal.

Nationally Recognized Faculty

Award-winning faculty guide students toward successfully earning their degree online at an R1 elite research university.

Pioneering Leader

ODU has advanced distance learning for nearly 40 years. Our culture of innovation continues as we embrace new technologies and lead the way in establishing best practices.

LET'S GO

artsandlettersonline@odu.edu

